

Final seminar of the BuSK project

How to listen to locals in land use planning?

11-12 February 2019

Arctic Centre, Rovaniemi, Finland

Tuesday 12.2.

8:30 Registration

9:00-9:15 Introduction and opening words: Seija Tuulentie, Luke

Theme I: Why and how to make local voice heard?

9:15-9:40 EU principles to increase the voice of local communities in land use management: EU representative (tba)

9:40-10:00 How do you conserve, protect, live and work in peripheral rural regions? John McDonagh, NUIG, Ireland

10:00-10:20 Land use issues in reindeer herding, Sweden, Gran Sameby & Per Sandström, SLU, Sweden

10:20-10:30 Comment: ILK in land use planning - Finnish perspective, Sami representative (tba)

10:30-10:40 Comment: Gender perspective, Gun Lidestav, SLU, Sweden

10:40-11:00 Possibilities of 'social license to operate' in various land use modes, Arvid Viken and Gaute Svensson, UiT, Norway, Leena Suopajarvi, University of Lapland, Finland

11:00-11:20 Coffee break

Theme II: How to gather and use local knowledge in planning?

11:20-11:40 Participatory methods to increase local voice in land use planning, Per Sandström & Stefan Sandström, SLU, Sweden

11:40-12:00 Reconciling forestry with other land use issues – participation in focus, Kii Korhonen, Metsähallitus, Finland

12:00-12:20 Challenges of new land use modes to the farming community, Case Sandoy, Gestur Hovgaard, University of Faroe Islands and Tordis á Rógvi, Visit Sandoy, Faroe Islands

12:20-12:40 Participatory knowledge for Unesco World Heritage Site in Greenland, Karl Zinglensen, GINR & Hans Holt Poulsen, Qeqqata municipality, Greenland

12:40-13:00 The use of local knowledge in land use planning in Enontekiö region, Finland – Minna Turunen & Inkeri Markkula, Arctic Centre, University of Lapland, Finland

13:00-14:00 Lunch break

Theme II: How to gather and use local knowledge in planning?

- 14:00-14:20 Growing tourism and local societies – Iceland example, Hans Welling, University of Iceland
- 14:20-14:40 Comment: Developing tourism in Rovaniemi (tba)
- 14:40-15:00 Mining and local society in Kittilä – results from PPGIS query, Mikko Jokinen, Luke and Anna Kantola, University of Lapland, Finland
- 15:00-15:15 Comment: Mining industry representative (tba)
- 15:15-15:35 Transboundary PPGIS – example from Kilpisjärvi/Reisa, Ari Nikula, Luke, Finland
- 15:35-15:45 Comment: PPGIS information in developing transboundary Halti co-operation: Pertti Itkonen, Metsähallitus, Finland
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee break

Theme III: How to develop participatory processes?

- 16:00-17:00 Panel discussion: Main land use issues in northern periphery from local perspective and needs to increase participation
Chair: Rannveig Ólafsdóttir, University of Iceland
Participants: Seija Tuulentie, John McDonagh, Gun Lidestav, Ragnheidur Bogadóttir, Rune Benonissen, representative of Rovaniemi villages

Welcome!

If you have any questions concerning the event, please contact project coordinator Seija Tuulentie

seija.tuulentie@luke.fi
+358 295324438

www.luke.fi/busk

